HOW TO CHECK YOUR TROOP ROSTER IN MYGS

The screenshot illustrates the steps to check a troop roster. It shows the 'MY GS' button circled in red (1), the login form with 'Log In!' circled (2), and the 'My Troops' section for Troop 80980. A callout box (4a) explains that updates to program level, troop size, or open adult volunteer roles require a Troop Information Update Form. The 'My Troops' table shows meeting times, program levels, roles, and member counts. A 'Show inactive and not returning members' link is circled (5). Below, two rows of member details are shown, with 'Support Volunteer' circled (6) and status indicators 'a. TIME TO RENEW' and 'b. TIME TO RENEW' circled (7).

1. Navigate to www.gshnj.org and click on “MY GS.”
2. Log in.
3. Select “My Troop(s)” from the left menu bar and select the troop you’d like to view.
4. Check that all the troop description information is accurate.
 - a) Check that your program level, troop size, and open adult volunteer roles are accurate. Use the Troop Information Update Form to change your program level, troop size, or open adult volunteer roles.
 - b) Check that the meeting location, date, and time are accurate. Click “edit meeting details” to change your meeting location, date, or time.
5. Scroll down to “Member details: girl.”
 - a) Are all the girls currently participating in meetings listed with a status of either “active” or “time to renew?”

- Use the eye icon to view any Girl Scouts with “inactive” statuses who have not renewed their membership for the current membership year.

6. Scroll down to “member details: adult.”

- a) Are all the adults currently volunteering with the troop listed with a status of either “active” or “time to renew?”
 - Use the eye icon to view any adults with “inactive” statuses who have not renewed their membership for the current membership year.
- b) Are the status for their volunteer role(s) displaying as “active” or “time to renew?” Any adults with “lapsed” or “inactive” role statuses have not renewed their volunteer role for the current membership year. The expiration date will tell you when their role ended.
- c) If their role requires a current background check, is it valid or expired? Check the CBC expiration column on the volunteer’s tile. The system will automatically alert them when it’s time to renew, but the alert is only valid for 72 hours. You may request that your background check be retriggered by submitting a request to GSHNJ council staff.

HOW TO APPLY FOR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

A caregiver may apply for financial assistance at the time of registration. Assistance is available for membership fees plus a choice of either the basic uniform and insignia (available only as a new member or in a “transition” year), or $60 allocated to the troop.

Note: Troop leaders cannot apply for financial assistance on behalf of troop members.

1. Select “Apply for financial aid” when choosing a payment type.
2. Look for an email requesting supporting documents.
3. Submit documentation as requested. Acceptable documentation can include:
 - a. a copy of your SNAP enrollment
 - b. free/reduced lunch form
 - c. EBT determination
 - d. Medicaid
 - e. WIC
 - f. SSI benefit letter
 - g. Disability
 - h. Unemployment
 - i. current pay stub
 - j. W-2
4. Once documentation is received, the caregiver will be notified by email and member placement in a troop is completed. Caregivers may bring the notification email to a GSHNJ Retail Shop to obtain the basic uniform and insignia, if that has been requested.
